

Description of the Problem:

The Chinatown in Manhattan, New York City is an interesting place to visit for tourists, especially for those who have Chinese origins (to see what the Chinese people's lives are like in such a big multicultural city). It will be very helpful to list the venues worth a visit for these sightseers as they may not be familiar with Chinatown and may get lost easily.

Description of the Data:

The location data from Foursquare will be used to sort out and list the top venues around Chinatown.
